

Philosophical Reasoning as Transformative Experience

A Conference at the University of Konstanz
July 24–26, 2019

L.A. Paul's treatment of transformative experience has been much discussed in recent decision theory. However, it seems that the notion of transformative experience might be productively applied to the therapeutic and transformative aspects of the enterprise of philosophy itself. This application of transformative experience to the activity of philosophy will be explored at this conference.

Participants

Dorothea Debus, University of Konstanz
Andrea Lailach, University of Konstanz
André Grahle, LMU München
Pei-hua Huang, Monash University
Tilo Eilebrecht, Stuttgart
Philipp Thomas, University of Tübingen
Michael Hampe, ETH Zürich
Alice Koubová, Czech Academy of Sciences and Academy of Performing Arts
Cedric Braun, University of St. Gallen
Julia Langkau, University of Fribourg
Sidra Shahid, Amsterdam University College
Rico Gutschmidt, University of Konstanz

If you have any questions about the conference, please contact us at:
transformativeconference@gmail.com

All sessions will be held at room G 201.

The conference begins on July 24th at 2pm.

Attendance is free.

Registration is not required.

Organized by Andrea Lailach and Rico Gutschmidt